

The Black Parenting Project Call for Submissions

Submission Deadline Jan 17th, 2020

We are seeking Black families from diverse backgrounds living in Ontario for a short film on Black parenting.

Do you have children under age 18? Film yourself answering the following questions:

- Tell me about your child/children.
- What are your hopes and dreams for them?
- What are your challenges and worries about raising a Black child in Ontario?

Submit a video under 5 minutes along with a recent photo of you with your children.

Submission will be accepted in English or French. Go to www.blackparenting.ca for more information on the film and how to submit your video.

In consideration of any or all photographs, video recordings, and/or sound recordings (the "Materials"), I hereby grant Turner Consulting Group Inc. and its successors, licensees and assigns all rights to edit, adapt, and otherwise incorporate the Materials, including name, likeness, voice, and biographical material about me, in whole or in part, into the Project and its promotional materials in any way it deems advisable and to exhibit, transmit, reproduce, distribute, and otherwise promote the Project in any and all manner and media of communications whether now known or hereafter devised, worldwide and in perpetuity.
